

Anticipate and advise

Training for professionals

In order to develop the skills base of your teams, Sedgwick has opened up its specialist in-house training programmes to insurance companies, administrators, experts, students and others.

Accredited training body

Sedgwick is an accredited training body which offers a comprehensive program specially tailored to art objects and precious assets with a simple goal: to provide you with training of the first order which will upgrade the skills base of your staff and enhance productivity, both now and in the future.

20 training modules grouped into six domains

- Knowledge of the insurance sector
- Mechanical and electronic security systems
- Jewellery, gemstones
- Fraud detection and management
- Appraisal and valuation of decorative arts
- Customer relationship management, psychology and negotiation

Experienced trainers

The expert trainers at Sedgwick have an unparalleled level of excellence, with a combined total of over 10 years of experience in the fields of security, insurance, fine art, etc.

Training which meets your efficiency needs...

20 fine art training modules

Knowledge of the insurance sector

- Theft and the law
- Theft and contracts
- Examination of guarantees
- Examination of documentary evidence
- Calculation techniques

Security systems

- Technical inspection of mechanical security systems
- Technical inspection of electronic security systems
- Managing the use of alarm systems, remote surveillance and security personnel

Jewellery, gemstones

- Jewellery 1 training
- Jewellery 2 training
- Technical appraisal of jewellery

Fraud

- Fraud
- Argos

Decorative arts

- History of the decorative arts
- Style and techniques of XVIII-century furniture making
- Understanding contemporary art
- Graphic art
- Ceramics
- Timepieces and watches

Training methodology

We analyse your training needs and we either suggest existing modules or we design specific modules for you.

If a number of companies are participating, the training sessions take place on our premises according to our annual schedule. For training within a single company, the sessions can take place on the dates which are the most convenient for you, on our premises or at one of your sites.

For all inquires, please contact:

Michel Honoré

Director of Fine Arts,
Sedgwick France

T 04.76.04.20.50
M 06.78.26.07.95
E michel.honore@fr.sedgwick.com

For a national contact point for all our services, please email:

E fineart@fr.sedgwick.com