

Call centre services

Sedgwick provides a high-quality call centre solution offering after-hours emergency claim reporting services for customers, insurers, brokers and policyholders. Our in-house team is available 24/7 to assist callers with various types of property, casualty and automobile claims, and we provide immediate intervention to help drive the best possible outcomes.

Our call centre offers expert intake services to ensure seamless claim reporting along with proper data capture. Your clients, policyholders and customers will be well taken care of throughout the process. When someone contacts our team for help after experiencing a loss or an accident, one of our colleagues will assess their situation, and then make arrangements for one of our adjusters to contact them, attend the scene or coordinate emergency service assistance where necessary. We understand that this can be a stressful time. Our colleagues are knowledgeable, licensed and prepared to provide sound guidance to manage your client's needs and expectations.
