

major and complex loss

When major and complex losses happen, there isn't time to lose while a claim is settled. Our team brings expertise, experience, world-class advice and cost-effective, fair claims handling to get your business up and running as quickly as possible.

Large-scale, major losses are by their very nature intricate, complex and full of challenges. Sedgwick is one of the world's leading loss adjusting companies, offering comprehensive technology-enabled risk, benefits and integrated business solutions. We are well-versed in taking care of our clients and consumers in the face of the world's largest and most complex losses. With responsive risk management, technical loss adjusting, and claims management expertise, we are ready to quickly respond to losses in any industry.

Our global network of elite, experienced, seasoned claims professionals, located in 65 countries, has the technical skills and in-depth sector knowledge to be your trusted partner in mitigating or resolving claims. We understand your local culture, business, and regulatory environment.

Professional development is a key part of our team – both through formal training programs and informal mentoring and development. We have a strong culture of hands-on learning, so there's always access to someone who has been there, and seen it, before.

Our specialist groups have combined to be the first choice for major and complex loss management in a number of fields including:

- Aviation
- Business and practice interruption
- Construction

- Energy/mining
- Entertainment
- Food and beverage
- Hospitality
- Manufacturing
- Public entities
- Real estate
