

The disaster recovery specialists delivering high quality, best value, guaranteed; cleaning, repair and restoration services for both buildings and contents.

We provide a number of different services, ranging from water extraction, sanitation, stabilisation, drying, cleaning, restoration, mould remediation and removal and storage of contents.

Did you know?

- We've been trading for over 15 years and are ISO14001 accredited
- Oriel staff are BDMA Qualified and Oriel is a Corporate Member of BDMA
- We provide a national solution for the repair and restoration of both buildings and contents
- Our network comprises of independent local and regional contractors
- Oriel Restore provides a three year guarantee
- We focus on restoring contents with a market leading success rate
- Our clients have reported considerable cost savings generated via our unique approach to restoration compared to traditional approaches
- We've developed an award winning wet perils restoration solution, which reduces disruption to your customers and saves you money

- Our restoration solution is founded on determining the right technical solution for the restoration of each property taking into account the individual construction and circumstances of the loss
- A technical review is undertaken on each case involving building damage by an Oriel drying and building expert
- We are always utilising new technology and innovation such as thermal convectant drying and remote wireless measurement
- We've a robust approach to audit and continuous improvement and all companies on our network are committed to participating in our ongoing training programme
- We've the right expert and solution to undertake all ranges of damage, from carpet cleaning to major loss for both domestic and commercial customers

Chris Carlton
Director, Oriel

M +44 7789 396394
E christopher.carlton@uk.sedgwick.com